Message from Chief Editor

Let me first of all take this opportunity to wish all our readers a very happy, peace and prosperous New Year 2016. It has been Two years since I was given the privilege to serve as the Chief Editor of the EXPRESSION: A JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE. It is a great pleasure for me to humbly shoulder this duty despite it being a constantly demanding task. This is the first issue of the second volume of the EXPRESSION: A JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE. Our goal is to create a platform for exchange of information on all aspects of social science. I would like to encourage you to submit original research papers. A total of 13 articles are presented in the third issues and I sincerely hope that each one of these provided some significant stimulation to a reasonable segment of our community of readers.

Over the past two years, the journal has not undergone major change. However, regular and timely publication has been ensured which is important for its continued growth. On a positive note, there has been a steady increase of articles received for publication indicating a growing interest among researchers to publish their work in this journal.

Finally, we wish to encourage more contributions from the readers to ensure the continued success of the journal. Authors, reviewers and guest editors are always welcome. We also welcome comments and suggestions that could improve the quality of the journal.
