Event Description:

A Symposium on "Gender equality and empowerment of women in the Digital Age" was organized by the IQAC & Women Cell held on 11th October 2021 at Modern College of Professional Studies, Mohan Nagar, Ghaziabad.

The Symposium was started with the traditional and auspicious lamp-lighting by Resource Person Dr. Vineet Garg, Secretary Mr. Vineet Goel, Principal Dr. Nisha Singh and other faculty members.

Since 2012, 11 October has been marked as the International Day of the Girl. The International Day of the Girl Child is celebrated annually on October 11 to empower and amplify the voices of young girls around the world. The theme of UNICEF this year is "Digital generation, Our generation." The day aims to highlight and address the needs and challenges that girls face while promoting girls' empowerment to promote the progress of girls and safeguard their rights. Also, acknowledging the growing digital world and how a digital gap can also widen the gender gap.

The Theme "Gender equality and empowerment of women in the Digital Age" focuses on bridging the digital divide. Adolescent girls have the right to a safe, educated and healthy life. If supported effectively during adolescence, girls can change the world – empowered girls of today will perform their duties as workers, mothers, entrepreneurs, mentors, heads of household and political leaders of tomorrow. Investing in realizing the power of adolescent girls today upholds their rights. It promises a more equitable and prosperous future, with half of humanity as equal partners in solving the problems of climate change, political conflict, economic development, disease prevention, global stability.

Objectives: To enable the students to-

- Sensitize students towards the need to preserve our environment and ecology.
- Motivate the students to keep their surroundings green and clean by undertaking the plantation of trees.
- To imbibe habits and lifestyle for minimum waste generation, source separation of waste and disposing the waste to the nearest storage point.

MCPS always strives to make the students sensitive and aware of the environment. With the noble mission of making our city green and serene, students, all the MCPS family, Amrit Manthan Welfare society and citizens of nearby Jasmine Grove Society participated in "Swachh Bhart Abhiyan for a Clean and Green India".

Tree Plantation Drive on July 10, 2021, the motto behind this mega initiative was an effort to reduce air pollution in Ghaziabad, which has reached alarming levels. The drive was organized under the patronage and guidance of Dr. Nisha Singh Principal, Modern College of Professional Studies Ghaziabad. A group of enthusiastic people planted more than 200 saplings of herbal plants such as Curry Leaves (Murray sp), Jatropha, Jamun, Kalanchoe Pinnata, Bael, Neem, Basil, Ashwagandha, etc., not only in the Sanjeevani Vatika i.e. the herbal garden within the society but also energetically carried the drive in the neighboring area.

The students planted saplings in the garden of a nearby residential society to raise awareness and consciousness about the environment among the masses. The residents welcomed and supported the endeavor wholeheartedly.

The drive was a huge success empowering student with substantial knowledge of the environment and plants and simultaneously enhancing their social skills.

SECTION B : Event report and reflection

Objectives: To enable students to-

- Remember the martyr of the Jallianwala Bagh Massacre
- Familiarize students with their contribution to the nation.
- Develop the students' patriotism and spirit of leadership and sacrifice.

Event Description

On the 13th day of April, a tribute was given to the martyrs of Jallianwala Bagh in the form of an event called Massacre, Jallianwala Bagh Diwas-" A Tribute to Martyr of Jallianwala Bagh Massacre also called Massacre of Amritsar, was an incident on April 13, 1919, in which British troops fired on a large crowd of unarmed Indians in an open space known as the Jallianwala Bagh in Amritsar in the Punjab region (now in Punjab state) of India, killing several hundred people and wounding many hundreds more. It marked a turning point in India's modern history in that it left a permanent scar on Indo-British relations and was the prelude to Mohandas (Mahatma) Gandhi's total commitment to the cause of Indian nationalism and independence from Britain.

The tribute ceremony started with the deep prajwalan by Dr. Nisha Singh (Principal of MCPS) and Dr. Dhiraj Singh (H.O.D., Education), Mr. Arvind Kumar (HOD, BCA), Dr. Vinit Garg(HOD., BBA & B.Com.), Mr. Ankur Gupta (H.O.D, LL.B.) .The whole program was divided into two halves.

In the first half, students participated in the event and presented their views on the contribution of martyrs of Jallianwala Bagh massacre.

In the second half, the principal, HOD, and the faculty members with National Anthem gave a warm tribute with wet eyes. Principal recalled the contribution of martyrs of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre with moist eyes and also told why the 13th of April is celebrated as "Jallianwala Bagh Diwas."
