ANNUAL GENDER SENSITISATION ACTION PLAN

Academic Year-2021-22

The institute has a dedicated Women Development Cell that promotes gender sensitization and women's empowerment. The cell has representatives from all the departments of the institution and is responsible for overseeing the implementation of the gender sensitization action plan. The Cell ensures the safety of women, both staff and students, on the campus. The specific objectives are:

- Attending to all grievances or complaints related to women's safety and taking immediate remedial action.
- The members of the cell shall organize programs to educate and sensitize staff and students about gender issues and the safety of women.
- Programs will be conducted in the year 2021-22 on the occasion of International Women's Day and International Girl Child Day to create awareness about women's issues.
