Event Description:

A Symposium on "Gender equality and empowerment of women in the Digital Age" was organized by the IQAC & Women Cell held on 11th October 2021 at Modern College of Professional Studies, Mohan Nagar, Ghaziabad.

The Symposium was started with the traditional and auspicious lamp-lighting by Resource Person Dr. Vineet Garg, Secretary Mr. Vineet Goel, Principal Dr. Nisha Singh and other faculty members.

Since 2012, 11 October has been marked as the International Day of the Girl. The International Day of the Girl Child is celebrated annually on October 11 to empower and amplify the voices of young girls around the world. The theme of UNICEF this year is "Digital generation, Our generation." The day aims to highlight and address the needs and challenges that girls face while promoting girls' empowerment to promote the progress of girls and safeguard their rights. Also, acknowledging the growing digital world and how a digital gap can also widen the gender gap.

The Theme "Gender equality and empowerment of women in the Digital Age" focuses on bridging the digital divide. Adolescent girls have the right to a safe, educated and healthy life. If supported effectively during adolescence, girls can change the world – empowered girls of today will perform their duties as workers, mothers, entrepreneurs, mentors, heads of household and political leaders of tomorrow. Investing in realizing the power of adolescent girls today upholds their rights. It promises a more equitable and prosperous future, with half of humanity as equal partners in solving the problems of climate change, political conflict, economic development, disease prevention, global stability.

SECTION B: Event Report and Reflection

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav is an initiative of the Government of India to celebrate and commemorate 75 years of independence and the glorious history of its people, culture and achievements.

Event Objectives:

- To focus on the five resolutions to make India a developed nation – removing every trace of bondage, taking pride in its heritage and unity, and fulfilling the duties of citizens over the next 25 years.
- To create a new framework for the nation's security, growth, development, and that of developing countries worldwide.

Event Description:

Under the joint aegis of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Modern College of Professional Studies, Mohan Nagar Ghaziabad, in collaboration with Amrit Manthan Welfare Society Ghaziabad, a two-day national seminar was organized under 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' on the 8th to 9th April 2022 in online and offline mode.

The central theme of this seminar is "75th Years of Independence: Achievements, Challenges and Opportunities". on its first day, dated April 8th, 2022, the Inaugural session was started by Chief Guest Dr. Smita Singh (Assistant General Manager, Uttar Pradesh Industrial Development Authority), Guest of Honor-

Mr. Ashutosh Bhatnagar (Freelance Journalist), Keynote Speaker- Dr. Pawan Kumar Sharma It was done by lighting the lamp in front of Maa Saraswati by college secretary Mr. Vineet Goel and the convenor of the seminar, Dr. Nisha Singh (Principal, Modern College of Professional Studies).

On this occasion, the chief speaker addressed and made students aware of the British era and the education system of Independent India. He constantly motivates them to follow all the works and books like Manusmriti, Yajnavalkya Smriti and Mimamsa etc; At last, he concluded that only through education we would be able to aware our future generations of the issues and challenges to face and to avail the opportunities available to them.

The chief guest addressed that on August 15, 1947, the country got freedom from hundreds of years of slavery. Since then, the government has made an identity for itself in the development journey in cultural, social, political, economic, military, sports, and technical fields. New records have been made in this development journey of 75 years. Therefore, organizing such seminars occasionally is necessary for our society.

In the first technical session, many research papers were presented on the topics of Universalization of Education, the Right to Education Act 2009, the New National Education Policy 2020, and gender equality and women's safety in the current perspective, in which Dr. Aruna Sharma, the chairperson of the first technical session and subject expert (Head of Department of History, Ginni Devi Post Graduate College, Meerut) along with co-chairman of this session Dr. Archana Mishra, and subject expert (Head of Department of English, Ginni Devi Post Graduate College, Meerut) were concluded the session.

At the end of the session, the principal, Dr. Nisha Singh, addressed that in the past several decades, governments have come up with public welfare policies and schemes to empower the common man. But despite these successes and achievements, there has been a decline in social and moral values. It is not only the leaders responsible for these degradations; the degeneration of values has also come in all spheres of society.

At the end of the first day of the Seminar, around 25 research papers were presented.

On day two of the National Seminar, April 9, 2022, the program was inaugurated by the chief guest Professor Dr. Navinchandra Lohani (Dean, Faculty of Arts and Head, Department of Hindi, Chaudhary Charan Singh University, Meerut), Convener of the seminar, Dr. Nisha Singh (Principal, Modern College of Professional Studies) al by lighting a lamp in front of Maa Saraswati. The chief guest was welcomed by the principal, Dr. Nisha Singh. Dr. Dhiraj Singh, head of the education department, introduced the chief guest. After this, many researchers and educationists from different states and universities presented their research papers on population education, skill development, value education, and the significance of the values enshrined in the Indian Constitution. Total of 25 articles and research papers were presented at the end of the second day.

The third and fourth technical session was conducted online in which subject expert and chairperson Dr. Rajneesh (Head, Department of Education, Jagadguru Rambhadracharya University, Chitrakoot) and Dr. Vineet Garg , under the direction of the Head, Department of Commerce.

At Last, Dr. Nisha Singh, the Principal, announced the best research papers of this seminar, which will be published in a book with an ISBN.

SECTION B: Event report and reflection

Event objectives-

- To make students aware about Stock investment & Virtual Trading.
- To provide education in the use of Share Market.
- To encourage higher-level thinking and creativity through ICT.
- To deliver students with a learning experience in portfolio management.

Event Description:

The Department of Commerce of Modern College of Professional Studies organized a Guest lecture on “Stock Investing and Virtual Trading” on 06-May-2022.

The Guest speaker Mr. Himanshu Verma, Founder and CEO at Himanshu Gyan, was heartily welcomed by Dr. Nisha Singh, Principal, and Dr. Vineet Garg, Head of the Department of Commerce. Ms. Nidhi Singh, Ms. Seema Sharma, Ms. Mansi Gurung, Mr. Ankit Saxena, and Ms. Sonam Topwal, faculty coordinators, were also present.

Mr. Himanshu Verma is a financial consultant by profession. He mentors Young Professionals in the stock market and financial literacy. He joined a new company, “Fino Payments Bank Ltd”, Noida, UP, as Sales Representative. (From Feb Dec. 2016 to Sept. 2017). Then he Joined a Stock Broking company known as “Sharekhan Ltd by BNP Paribas” Karol Bagh, Delhi, as a CCE (Customer Care Executive), (From Oct. 2017 to May 2019). Currently, he runs his financial education platform called "Himanshu Gyan (Investing & learning Simplified)" Himanshu Gyan is the best-suited platform for Students, Traders/Investors & all those with an interest in the financial market. It tries to help people to achieve their financial goals by spreading financial literacy. It aims to spread financial literacy in India and to spread awareness/ education/ knowledge to every person in India about the financial market (From July. 2021 to the Present).

Mr. Himanshu Verma started the session by questioning the students about Stock Trading to understand their basic knowledge of the subject. Sir explained that a stock market is an equity market or share market. The aggregation of buyers and sellers of stocks, also called shares, represents ownership claims on business which may include securities listed on a public exchange and those only traded privately. He addressed the students on trading in the stock market, especially the use of technical analysis in picking stocks, tools of technical analysis and investment planning. He emphasized the importance of investing in the equity market and mutual funds and how they can multiply one's earnings.

He enlightened the students on "How to start Investment?" and explained that investing and trading are two very different methods of making a profit in the financial markets. The goal of investing is to gradually build wealth over an extended period through buying and holding a portfolio of stocks, baskets of stocks, mutual funds, bonds, and other investment instruments.

The lecture delivered was appreciated by the students. The topic was very interactive and affirmative. The key learning of the course was it made students aware of the various latest virtual trading platforms.

The session was concluded by Dr. Vineet Garg, Head of the Department of Commerce, with a vote of thanks. A memento was also given to the Sir in appreciation for educating and enlightening the students.
